DCI:

During my morning White House call, Djerejian told me that Bob Woodward had met with him to discuss the administration's position on the story that the POST is sitting on. Woodward told Djerejian that while the President had called Kay Graham, and Poindexter and other administration heavyweights had weighed in with the POST on this matter, the POST could not figure out what it was that the administration was so concerned about. Djerejian said he wrote up the full account of his lengthy session with Woodward for Poindexter and deGraffenreid and said he had asked Ken to call me. Ken has not been in touch with me so far and I will keep after him and Djerejian. In the meantime perhaps you would like to touch base with Poindexter and get an update on what is going on.
